

9TH MAY 2017

COIN STREET NEIGHBOURHOOD CENTRE
108 STAMFORD STREET, SE1 9NH

SAVE THE DATE

ACUTE ADULT MENTAL HEALTH CARE CONFERENCE:

How Can Psychological Practitioners Help?

This one day conference invites anyone involved in acute care and associated services to reconsider the role of psychological therapists in acute adult mental health services.

INVITED SPEAKERS

Isabel Clarke	Author of 'CBT for Acute Inpatient Mental Health Units'
Russell Razzaque	NELFT NHS: Open Dialogue
Dave Harper	University of East London: Stigma and Marginalisation
Rumina Taylor	South London &amp; Maudsley NHS: Working with Families
John Adlam	South London &amp; Maudsley NHS: Reflective Practice
Julie Fraser	South London &amp; Maudsley NHS: Tree of Life
Lisa Wood	NELFT NHS: Stigma and Inpatient Experiences
Claire Williams	NELFT NHS: Low Intensity Psychological Interventions

SESSIONS

Service users' and staff experiences of acute mental health services
Supporting staff to manage risk and deliver compassionate care
Psychological interventions effective in acute adult mental health care
Tackling marginalisation and stigma

This event is free however there are limited spaces.

To register your interest, please contact Fareeha.Khan@slam.nhs.uk

The details of this conference are provisional and subject to change.

Division of Clinical Psychology
London Branch

In partnership with

South London and Maudsley

NHS Foundation Trust

